

Notification of changes in circumstances

(Section 104 of the Migration Act 1958)

Section 104 of the Migration Act 1958 requires you to inform the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) of any changes in your circumstances that affect any answer to a question in your application form.

You do not have to notify the department of any changes in your circumstances that occurred:

- after you were granted your visa (if you applied for your visa in Australia); or
- after you have been immigration cleared (if you applied for your visa outside Australia).

Use this form to notify the department of any changes in your circumstances that affect any answers on your application form. You should use form 1023 Notification of incorrect answer(s) if you wish to notify the department that you have supplied it with any incorrect information.

You must answer all questions on this form.

Warning:

- If you do not comply with section 104 and notify the department of your new circumstances, your visa is liable to be cancelled under the Migration Act 1958.
- If you have been granted a visa, the information you provide on this form will be taken into account in deciding whether the visa should be cancelled.
- If you are an applicant for a visa which has not yet been granted, the information you provide on this form will be taken into account when assessing your visa application.
- If your visa is cancelled and you are in Australia, you will become an unlawful non-citizen. Unless you are granted a further visa, you will be detained and removed from Australia.
- If your visa is cancelled and you are outside Australia, and you subsequently travel to Australia, you will be refused immigration clearance and will be removed from Australia.
- If you subsequently discover that you have provided any incorrect information on this form, you must notify the department that you have done so. Use form 1023 Notification of incorrect answer(s) to do this.
- Cancellation of a visa that already has been granted is not automatic. If you are in Australia, you will be given an opportunity to comment on the grounds for possible cancellation before a final decision on cancellation is made.

About the information you give in this form
